

Modules Available by Distance Studies

Western has a robust distance course offering. Delivery is entirely online and includes multimedia materials and other web-based communications. Based on a review of distance courses offered within the past five years, the following is a list of modules that can be completed entirely by distance. Refer to the Western timetable for current availability of distance courses for enrollment.

Area of Study	Modules, Certificates and Diplomas Available
Anthropology	 Minor
Criminology	 Minor
Français des Affaires (Business French)	 Diploma  Certificate
Français Pratique (Practical French)	 Diploma  Certificate
General English	 Minor
Philosophy	 Minor
Political Science	 Minor
Psychology	 Major  Minor
Sociology	 Major  Specialization  Minor
Writing	 Diploma  Certificate

This information does not include modules available through Brescia, Huron or King's University College.

Examination Centres

Distance Studies students may write exams in established Exam Centres. Visit: Distance Studies Examinations for more information.

Admission to the University

To enroll in any modules or courses at Western, students must first be admitted to the University. For information regarding Admission Requirements, visit Welcome to Western.

The Degree Structure

Refer to The Degree Structure for base degree requirements, e.g. total course requirements, which modules can be completed in a three-year degree vs. a four-year degree... etc.

Note: Certificates are pre-degree programs and normally must be completed as part of a degree. Diplomas are post-degree programs and normally must be completed after a university degree has been obtained. See Certificates and Diplomas for more information.