Important Information

- Final admission averages are not rounded to the nearest whole percentage for admission scholarship consideration

- The final admission average calculation includes pre-requisite courses for the student's selected program.
- Students taking secondary school courses during the summer prior to attending Western, that may affect their scholarship eligibility, must ensure that their final summer school grades are received by the Admissions office by August 31, 2017.
- It is the student's responsibility to verify that their high school has submitted all final grades to the Admissions office. Changes and appeals related to admission scholarship eligibility will not be considered after August 31, 2017.
- Official Western Admission Scholarship notification will be sent to eligible students via their Western email account in late August.
- Admission scholarships are not confirmed until after first year tuition fees are due, therefore admission scholarships cannot be deducted from the first installment of tuition. Once the scholarship is confirmed, it will be applied directly to the tuition account before the end of September, and can be used toward the second installment of tuition. If the application of the scholarship results in a credit on the tuition account, a refund will be issued to the student at the end of October via cheque or direct deposit to their bank account (if the student has enrolled in this option). Students can enrol in direct deposit through their Student Center account. Once logged in they should click on "Enrol in Direct Deposit" in the Finances section and input their banking information.
