

Rogers Family Award

Available to full-time students registered in the third year of study in the Faculty of Arts and Humanities, Faculty of Science or the Social Science Faculty, at The University of Western Ontario. Eligibility of the scholarship is based on academic achievement in Year 2. Preference will be given to students who have demonstrated the greatest increase in their annual academic average between the first year of university study and completion of the second year of university. Candidates must also demonstrate an aptitude for creative and innovative thought, exceptional achievement in extracurricular activities and commitment to active citizenship. Application forms can be obtained from the Office of the Registrar and must be returned to that office not later than September 30. A university selection committee will choose academically-qualified recipients based on the application and essay submission. Essays should be between 250 and 500 words in length, and should describe your strengths in meeting the criteria of the award. This scholarship was established through the generosity of Ted and Loretta Rogers and Family.

Two awards available at $4,200, for the Faculties of Arts & Humanities

Two awards available at $3,900, for the Faculties of Social Science
